

Title: Ratcliff Ranch Combines Production & Customer Appreciation Sale

Subtitle: Saturday, November 12, 2011

Ratcliff Ranch has combined its annual Fall Production & Customer Appreciation Sale this year. The sale will be held Saturday, November 12, 2011 at the Ranch headquarters in Vinita, Okla. The sale will feature 110 Angus and SimAngus bulls that are Ranch Ready.

In addition, the sale will feature nearly 1,000 females consisting of Ratcliff Ranch females and Ratcliff Ranch Customers' females. Fall pairs, spring bred heifers and cows will also be available for purchase. "This is by far one of the stoutest bull offerings we have ever auctioned," said Ratcliff Ranch Manager Heath Kohler. "We are also selling a significant number of A.I. bred cattle and some Steel Force daughters during the sale."

Individual videos of the bulls will be available around October 20th along with a select number of female videos. More videos will be added every few days after. Opportunities to see the bulls in person will be available at both the OCA Fall Gathering and the SW Missouri Cattlemen's events on October 20 and October 27th.

A more detailed listing of the offering is available on our sale page.
